

PHOTO CONTEST VEA 2020

'Roule, ma Poule ! Les transports en Angola' is the theme of our new photo contest this year. Share your best shots, be creative and stand out!

- Contest organized May 8 through 31, 2020
- 2 pictures maximum per participant
- Color or B&W

CONTEST RULES

ARTICLE 1: Purpose

VEA is organizing its eighth photo contest around 'Let's go! Transports in Angola'

The French 'Roule, ma Poule !' means 'I agree, let's move on'. It is reinterpreted by the VEA team this year as an invitation to explore all possible transportation means in Angola, from the most conventional to the most peculiar ones.

Participants are expected to interpret the theme their own way, with total freedom of perspective: realistic, humorous, poetic, colorful, unusual...

ARTICLE 2: Term

It will run from May 8 through 31, 2020, until midnight at the latest.

Any photo sent after the deadline will be rejected.

Then the VEA team as a jury will nominate a top 10.

ARTICLE 3: Participants and categories

The contest is open to all, except to VEA team.

ARTICLE 4: Terms of participation

Each participant may submit 1 to 2 photos maximum.

To enter the contest, each participant must send us his/her pictures by E-mail at concours@vivreenangola.com mentioning their name and surname, phone number, email address and the title of the photo(s), beside each of them.

Pictures must be submitted in JPEG format with a minimum resolution of 3200x4250 px.

ARTICLE 5: Posting of the photos on Facebook

The pictures will be posted by the VEA team on their Facebook page with name of the author, and title.

ARTICLE 6: Voting, selection criteria & prizes

The Jury prize: at the end of the submission period the members of the jury will select 10 pictures based on artistic, technical or editorial qualities, as well as compliance with the theme.

These 10 pictures will then be offered for sale, in their digital, high-resolution format only.

The Facebook prize: during the contest, Facebook visitors and their friends can vote for the pictures of their choice. The author and the picture that receive the highest rate of “likes” on the Facebook page of the event will receive the Facebook prize.

The results will be announced in June on the VEA website www.vivreenangola.com

At the end of the 2020 contest, there will be neither prize nor whatsoever form of award granted to the winners, neither for the Jury nor for the Facebook prizes.

ARTICLE 7: Charity Sale

This contest is a charity event. All the benefits from the sale of the pictures will be fully granted to charities, whose missions are even greater and more demanding than usual.

A selection of the best pictures will be done by members of a jury and VEA team. The selected pictures will be printed and sold to the benefit of a non-profit organization.

Participants agree to give to Vivre en Angola the authorization to sell the picture, in its digital, high resolution format only.

Participants also agree to print on any available material the pictures submitted at the contest. The same applies to design directly or indirectly, distribute directly or indirectly any documents, communication or advertisement using all or part of the pictures in order to promote the photo contest.

ARTICLE 8: Rules specific to any photo contest

Any participation whose contact information or description will be incorrect or incomplete will not be considered.

Participant take full responsibility of the content of the pictures submitted to the VEA photo contest.

In any case, participants agree to provide a picture or pictures which respect the intellectual property rights of third parties and all legislation in force, and which are, in a general way, in compliance with public order and morality.

The submitted pictures must show no pornographic or sectarian slant.

Participants guarantee VEA that he/she is the creator and exclusive author of the pictures submitted to the contest and that he/she holds all the rights granted on intellectual property, as well as all rights and permissions required for the publication of the pictures on the various media that might be used by VEA.

Participants guarantee that the pictures submitted to VEA do not and will not violate any copyright of a third party and guarantee VEA against infringement actions of the aforementioned third parties, against any eviction, disorder or prosecution in the peaceful use of the pictures, both on his own doing and by third parties. In case of legal proceedings, the participant shall bear, besides all litigation costs, all convictions against VEA.

Participants give VEA the right to reproduce all or part of pictures by any means and in any media known or unknown to date for the purposes and the duration of the contest. The same goes for the right to perform or get performed, to spread or get spread any document and/or promotional or advertising medium incorporating all or part of the pictures with the aim of promoting the contest within its framework.

The right to use and display in the widest sense all or part of the pictures including on the website www.vivreenangola.com for the purposes of the contest and its results.

Participants authorize in advance VEA to use their name, surname, and/or picture(s) in any event related to this contest. This will not give right to any compensation.

Participants also give VEA the right to reproduce all or part of pictures by any means and in any media known or unknown to date for the purpose of website www.vivreenangola.com (articles illustrations, posters, etc.)

VEA prohibits any use for commercial or mercantile goal of the pictures.

VEA keeps the right to print or use all pictures of the contest 2020 to sell them for charity to the benefit of a non-profit association (for example: selling calendars)

Under the moral law that the participant holds on his/her work, the name or nickname of the participant will be mentioned on each picture reproduced and/or represented by VEA, once the contest is completed.

The organizer has the right, if necessary, to postpone, modify or cancel this contest, to settle immediately and ultimately all the difficulties that may arise during the progress of the present contest. The responsibility of the organizer shall not be questioned if, due to any event, the commitments resulting from the present rules could not be wholly or partly held.

Pursuant to articles 38 and following of the Act of 6 January 1978 on IT, computer files and freedoms, as amended by the Act of 6 August 2004 on the protection of individuals with the regard to the processing of personal data, each registered participant has the right to access, modify, rectify and delete the data relating to him/her. These rights may be exercised with VEA by email at concours@vivreenangola.com

The members of the jury, the winners and anyone with access to the applications submitted within this contest commit to keep confidential the deliberations before the announcement of the winners.

Participation in the contest implies acceptance of all the provisions of the present rules.